

A NEARLY DONE.

mean Treaty Awaits the Assent of the Governments.

AMERICA CONCEDES NOT A THING.

While Germany Has Granted Every Point
That Was Demanded.

ENGLAND TO APPOINT THE FIRST JUDGE

(Copyright, 1930, by NEW YORK ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

BELFEST, June 1.—After the seventh plenary sitting of the Samoa Conference, held on Wednesday last, the American Commission was in a position to cable to Secretary Blaine the tentative acceptance by the German and English Governments of the Washington proposal, limiting the German indemnity and Samoa rights to levy import duties, and some of Mr. Blaine's amendments to the clauses relating to the internal Samoan policy.

The Washington Government's aim at the utmost possible independence of the Samoans has not the sympathy of the German official mind, which better comprehends measures to protect European interests and to extend European influence; but after a slight hostility the German commissioners have invariably yielded whatever concessions America asked in the direction of Samoan autonomy.

A BOLD STAND.

On the other hand, the Americans have conceded practically nothing, adhering to their original claims. Some show of conciliation was made toward the close of the conference by the Americans leaving the appointment of the first resident judge of the European community to England. In official circles here it is surmised that as chief justice of the court, the known personal relations of the chief justice with America has something to do with the American Commissioners' concession.

THE END WANTED.

The feeling in official circles undoubtedly is that, Germany having yielded everything demanded by the Americans, the Government at Washington ought to assent to a prompt conclusion of the matter. Some slight suspicion even exists, though entirely outside of the conference, that the American delegates have attributed delays to their Government, which in some instances were due to themselves.

They are having a good time here, and have not especially striven to accelerate the settlement of the questions at issue. Obviously, a suggestion like this arises from a desire to bury the issues of the conference out of sight of the public as soon as possible. Secretary Blaine's instructions to sign the treaty are expected in the course of next week.

THE BIG STRIKE.

The Cologne Gazette affirms that recent Crown counsils decided that the severest measures should be taken in the event of the strikers' pleading. The temporary suspension of work by the miners since the first of the workmen's delegates from the Ruhr has been arrested by the Government's action. The delegates will energetically carry on the agitation through every district in Germany.

It is expected that the general elections will be held in the autumn.

It is said that during the recent consistory for the Pope's father-in-law, the cardinal, Dr. Cicerelli, the Pope's chief physician, is reported as saying he may die at any moment.

Premier Crispien is credited with a design to occupy the Vatican in the event of the conclave meeting of Cardinals abroad. The Emperor appears to attach much importance to the reception of the Shah of Persia, who is due here on June 9.

Herr Fuesing, editor of the Westphalia Volks Zeitung, has been arrested. Papers found in his house reveal the fact that he prompted the proclamations of the Strike Committee.

Several of Captain Wisniewski's officers in East Africa are down with smallpox. Those stricken down are without attendance. The stock of vaccine lymph is exhausted.

HIS WIDOW'S EVIDENCE.

Mrs. Umberger Testifies Against Those Accused of the Murder of Her Husband.

—The Defendants' Counsel Called Her to the Stand.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

SOMERSET, Pa., June 1.—The Umberger murder trial was resumed this morning. The widow Umberger was placed upon the stand for cross examination. Her testimony could not be shaken by the counsel for defendants. Little 10-year-old Nannie Horner, who also witnessed the tragedy, also positively identifies the accused as the guilty parties. She points them out in court and relates the facts of that fearful night in a plain, simple, childlike manner.

The attorneys for the defense attempted to rattle her, but notwithstanding her extreme youth, she persisted in her story, and her testimony could not be shaken. This ended the testimony of all the parties who saw the deed committed. Dr. Walker testified to finding two bullet holes in the murdered man's body. After hearing 18 witnesses for the prosecution the court adjourned until Monday morning. There are nearly 200 witnesses to be heard. Interest remains unabated and the testimony so far added is very damaging to the prisoners.

FISHING CLUBS' MEETING.

They Take Necessary Action to Perfect the Summer's Outing.

The United Fishing Clubs met at the Mark Twain Club rooms at 8 o'clock last evening to make arrangements for a final meeting to select jaunting spots for this summer's recreation.

There were representatives from 35 fishing clubs present, and the rooms were crowded. George Weber was appointed Chairman and John Hogue Secretary. A committee of members from each club was appointed to meet at Squire Cassidy's office on Saturday next at 2 o'clock to perfect arrangements and procure railroad rates for the organization, and also select the places where the boys would recreate. Seven new clubs were added to the united organization.

Order of Tont's Open Meeting.

The Allegheny county lodge of the Order of Tont will give an immense open meeting at the Bijou Theater on Tuesday evening, June 4. The best talent procurable will be present and an excellent programme is assured. Supreme Secretary D. H. Kinney, of Philadelphia, will make an address on the objects of the order.

THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY FIGHT.

Mr. Bird Tells What the Union Labor Party Will Do, if Given a Chance.

Several announcements have been made recently of a meeting to be held at the office of W. L. Bird, Esq., No. 68 Grant street, by Independent Republicans and a number of members of the bar to place in the field an independent candidate on the Republican ticket.

A DISPATCH representative visited Mr. Bird last evening at his residence in Beltsville to ascertain what he knew of the movement, and in reply to a question as to the time when the prospective candidate would be made known, Mr. Bird said:

"I know absolutely nothing about the affair. I am neither a Republican nor a Democrat, but the chairman of the Union Labor party, and if any notice has been issued, it has been without my knowledge or consent."

"So far as my personal opinion is concerned, I would like to see Mr. L. E. Porter elected Mayor. I have been nominated independently by the Republicans, and I have not the least doubt that either of the gentlemen could be elected. The latter would be my choice personally, but I think Mr. Porter would make the strongest run. The Union Labor party would endorse either of them, and, if an Independent Republican candidate were not put in the field, we would endorse any good Democrat."

ABOUT LAUGHTER.

A Writer Claims That a Great Deal of Character Lies in a Laugh.

TEXAS SITTINGS.

Laughter is the great safety-valve of the human engine. It is queer how many different ways people laugh. The drunken man, for instance, laughs with his eyes.

(Only flowers, please.) A great deal of character lies in a laugh. Only last week a man with whom we have long been familiar quite startled us by breaking into a loud guffaw, which came manifestly from the heart, and yet which we have never heard before. His stylistic pen had worked for the first time in eight months. Thus it is seen that perhaps in many a heart a sweet angel slumbers unseen until some happy moment awakens it.

Our national characteristic is smiling. When two Americans meet the first thing they do is to "smile." There are occasions, however, when it is not safe to smile—when your wife has hit her finger with a tack-hammer, for instance.

Bill Wheeler Wilcox says "Laugh and the world laughs with you." Yes, very true; and slip up on a banana peel, and the world, or at least all within 20 yards of you, will laugh at you.

The President's Summer Home.

Washington Post.

Ex-Senator Davis' cottage at Deer Park, which will be occupied by the family of President Harrison during the summer months, is described as an unpretentious little frame house, painted sage green, with a half in height, has a front of 42 feet, and is entered from a broad piazza, upon which open three long French windows. The parlor occupies the entire width of the dwelling, in which huge fireplaces are built in the middle section of the wall, which partially divides the room. There is neither hallway nor reception room. An apartment in the wing will be used by the President as a library or snug retreat for his private use, and beyond is a small dining room finished in red. On the second floor are four sleeping rooms, reached by a narrow and steep stairway. Above are the servants' quarters. The kitchen is supplied with a large hot-water boiler for heating the bath. Every room is freshly covered with matting, and supplied with bamboo furniture.

Lady visitor in hospital—Poor man! How he groans! What is the matter with him, nurse?

Nurse—He's got the delirium tremens, Lady. To me, my friend, you should give up strong drink. Don't you know that what you're happier and have more pleasure without it?

Patent—Don't know about that, mum! I've been seeing circus men, an' menagerie men, an' snakes, an' blue monkeys with pink tails for two days, an' I didn't have to pay to get in, neither.
